

Alcaidesa Links Resort

The Links and Heathland courses at Alcaidesa Golf with PGA standard greens have made Alcaidesa one of the Costa Del Sol's most popular golf complexes, with very modern facilities.

The Links has well-defined fairways and large greens being of very high quality. It is a challenging course for all standards with many holes where caution and a little thought is required. Straight hitters will enjoy the course immensely but if you are a little wayward then there could be trouble; at least you always have the views! There are some tremendous holes with the Par 5 5th looking down over the 2km of beach lined holes being quite magnificent, a common temporary bottle neck on the course where players often stop to take photos. The par 3 12th is another amazing hole and WILL test your nerve. A downhill tee shot over bushes and a small lake is all carry to a wonderful beachside green.

The Heathland has wider fairways and is often much dryer enabling your ball to roll further - required on this testing longer course. The par 5 6th is a magnificent signature hole stretching down a valley toward the sea, several ditches, bunkers and a slight dog leg all make this hole a great one. A further stunning hole is the par 3 14th needing a well struck downhill tee shot to carry over a huge lake. This is particularly challenging off white tees.

Both courses are so beautiful to play in perfect weather with those stunning views but watch out for the sea breeze. This is when the courses show their teeth and your score can climb. You can walk the Links course quite easily but there are ample buggies available and these are certainly recommended in the hotter months and on the Heathland all year round.

The large clubhouse is well-equipped with bar and restaurant together with a very pleasant terrace area where you can gaze at the Mediterranean. . There are fabulous changing and practice facilities and clubs can be hired.

Alcaidesa is very friendly and welcomes visitors. It can be very busy and you should book in advance through Med Golf to avoid disappointment. Very highly recommended by Med Golf and a must to play if you are in the area.

Both courses are 18 holes par 72 course
